Abortion Clinics Close for Lack of Workers!

Education: What would happen if abortion clinics couldn't find workers to staff their centers? Some in the industry may be very hardened by years of killing children. But many workers at abortion clinics are not happy in their jobs. Some may have answered an ad for a job as a receptionist or bookkeeper without realizing the nature of the business. Some women hate their jobs but see no other way to feed their families. A pro-life organization, And Then There Were None, offers abortion workers who quit their jobs one month living expenses while they look for other employment. They have helped 240 workers to abandon their jobs in the abortion industry! They also help the workers with finding another job, and with emotional and spiritual healing from their experience, including fully paid weekend retreats.

Recently two ladies contacted ATTWN for help getting away from their jobs in two different abortion clinics. When they found out how they could be helped, they both reached out to their former co-workers and encouraged them to leave, too. Both clinics were completely emptied of workers, other than the doctors themselves who did the abortions! In other cases where this has happened, the abortion clinics have sometimes closed. You can find out more about ATTWN at their web site, www.abortionworker.com.

Prayer: Dear Father God, please rain down your grace on all who work in the abortion industry. Please, Lord, remove from their hearts and minds any misconceptions they may have that abortion helps women, or that the child is not a fully human child of God, worthy of respect. Help them to place their trust in You and leave their jobs. Help them to learn of the help available from And Then There Were None. Lead them to healing and peace in a closer relationship with You, dear Lord.

Please help many abortion clinics to close for lack of employees to conduct necessary services. When companies and individuals are asked to serve the needs of abortion clinics – whether it be with plumbing, electrical services, advertising, or whatever – give them the grace to refuse to involve themselves or give any support to those who pretend that the killing of children in the womb is a legitimate business. Help everyone to understand the evil of abortion and work to end it.

Action: Please pray frequently for all who work in the abortion industry. Pray that they will repent of their involvement and have the courage to leave their jobs. Pray that And Then There Were None will be enabled to reach many employees and help them to find healing and peace as well as new jobs. Consider supporting ATTWN with a donation (the recent flurry of activity has left their funds drained). Donations can be made online or by mailing a check. Or you can download a flyer about ATTWN and mail it to local abortion clinics!
